IBBR Publishes 2020 Issue of BioNEXUS Magazine

January 11, 2021 -- The Institute for Bioscience and Biotechnology Research (IBBR)

is pleased to share the second issue of BioNEXUS magazine.

BioNEXUS highlights IBBR's efforts to advance understanding of the structure and function of biomolecules and biological systems and to apply these discoveries to analytical tool innovation and to disease prevention and treatment.

The current issue of BioNEXUS includes a feature on The Next Vaccine: How Far We Have Come and the Hope for Tomorrow as well as stories about therapeutic discovery, biomolecular measurements, and new technologies.

The magazine is posted here: www.ibbr.umd.edu/bionexus

We hope you enjoy reading the issue; please feel free to share BioNEXUS widely, using the link above.
